Meetings, Attendance Policy and Proxy Procedures

The RPV has a Plan of Organization, commonly referred to as the State Party Plan. This is the governing document for the RPV. It outlines rules, procedures and responsibilities for members of the Party from the Party Chairman down to the individual units. The Plan's policy on meeting attendance and membership of unit committee members is as follows:

“A member of an Official Committee other than an ex-officio member automatically loses his committee position if he is absent three (3) consecutive meetings without representation by a person holding a proxy . . . In the case of an ex-officio member with voting privilege, those voting privileges shall be suspended if he is absent three (3) consecutive meetings. Voting privileges for an ex-officio member that has been suspended may be restored by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the other members of the committee.”

The person carrying your proxy should live in your magisterial district and may be a member or a non-member.

To facilitate the accurate record of your attendance, we ask each member to check in with representatives of the Membership Committee prior to the meeting. Once you have checked in you will receive a voting card. Please initial the card and return it at the conclusion of the meeting.

If you hold a proxy, you will receive their card as well. Please indicate you are a proxy and initial the card for the specific month. The member may hand you a completed proxy form or complete an online proxy form. If the member has given you the proxy form, you should give the paperwork to a representative of the Membership Committee. If it was submitted online please verify that it has been received.

You are encouraged to arrive early to allow time for attendance procedures. Business meetings begin at 7 PM.

VOTING

Votes are taken during committee meetings for a variety of reasons.

A member or non-member may cast no more than one vote when a vote is taken.

You may vote one time if you are a member of the committee.

You may vote one time if you are a member of the committee and carrying a proxy. The proxies you carry do not allow you to cast more than one vote.

If you are a member of a committee who cannot attend a meeting but would like to have your vote cast, your proxy must be carried by a non-member of the committee who lives in your magisterial district.

In order for someone to cast your vote, you must submit a proxy stating your intention. The proxy may be submitted online or may be brought to the meeting by the proxy holder. A printable copy of the proxy is attached to this document.

Please refer to the State Party Plan for more information on this subject.

HANOVER COUNTY OFFICIAL PROXY

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

What does the HCRC do?

Our mission is to find and elect Republican candidates for office who will promote our Republican ideals, and to help and assist the citizens of Hanover County, and assist elected Republican officials in the execution of their responsibilities.

What do the HCRC and the Republican Party in Virginia believe?

The Virginia Republican Party has a six-point creed that encapsulates our beliefs. In summary, the 6 points of our creed are the free enterprise system, equal rights for all individuals, fiscal responsibility, individual liberty, strong national defense, and the importance of faith in God for the moral fiber of the nation.

What types of people become active in the HCRC?

Anyone who shares our values.

What is a Magisterial District?

Magisterial districts are defined as a minor civil division that is a non-functioning subdivision used in conducting elections or recording land ownership. These districts are unique to counties and do not exist in Virginia's cities. The only other state to use magisterial districts is West Virginia.

What is the State Central Committee?

The State Central Committee is the governing body of the Republican Party of Virginia (RPV). Most members are elected, some are appointed, and some are non-voting members. Learn more here - <http://virginia.gop/state-central-committee/>

Why are meetings important?

Meetings are held to discuss current events and topics of general interest. This is a good opportunity to network with like-minded people, get information, and learn how to become more involved in the work of Hanover Republicans. Your time and skills are needed.

What is your attendance policy?

We expect our members to attend meetings. Of course, that's not always possible, so if that's the case you can ask someone to hold your proxy. If you miss three meetings without a representative holding a proxy, you will automatically lose your committee position.

Having a proxy is really important. How do I get a proxy?

You may submit an online proxy by going to this link. <http://www.hanovergop.com/online-proxy-form/>.

You may fill out a paper proxy and have your proxy holder bring the form to the meeting. The form can be located in this document.

I'm new to this committee and don't know anyone. How do I find someone to be my proxy?

Your magisterial district chairman is always willing to carry your proxy.

Do I need to pay dues every year?

Yes. Dues are $25 and due by April 1 of each year. You can give it to our treasurer at the business meetings or you can mail it to the treasurer at the address on our website.

Can I ask questions during the meeting?

The time to ask questions during the meeting is during "New Business." When the chair asks, "Is there any new business?" new items may then be brought up by any member.

Who are my HCRC officers and what do they do?

See the list of Executive Committee members in this document. The bylaws and state party plan describe their duties.

How and when do the HCRC officers get elected?

Officer elections are held every two years on even years. The Executive Committee sets an election date and determines the method of election. The State Party Plan outlines the available methods.

How do I volunteer and get involved?

Contact your Magisterial Chair or the Membership Chair.
